

Paul H. Dobiecki, Architect Professional Record

New York State Registered Architect
New York Institute of Technology

Professional Affiliations

New York State Association of Architects
Rotary International

Mr. Dobiecki has over 25 years experience in the field of Architecture. Paul Dobiecki has worked on a variety of both commercial and residential projects ranging in size up to 15 million dollars.

Through his career Mr. Dobiecki has worked as a consultant with the United States Federal Government, New York State, New York City and local Long Island Governments agencies including school districts, Fire Districts and medical facilities dealing with clients having diminished or limited capacities.

Paul Dobiecki has work in the past as an expert witness in numerous cases involving Construction related matters.